

Trinity SELT Centre Portsmouth

John Pounds Centre
23 Queen St
Portsmouth PO1 3HN

John Pounds Centre is a large community centre and building located near the University of Portsmouth campus.

Accessibility

Step-free access and lifts inside to enable easy access to the centre on the first floor.

Getting there

By train

Portsmouth Harbour

- Exit the station and turn left onto Queen Street towards Portsmouth historic dockside. Follow the road around until you reach Aylward Street. Turn right onto Aylward Street and follow the signs to the entrance of the centre.

Portsmouth and Southsea

- Exit the station and turn right onto Station Street. Cross the road and follow the roundabout around to Stanhope Road. Walk along the road until you reach a second roundabout. Turn left into Bishop Christian Way and follow the street until you reach the traffic light junction at the corner of Victoria Park. Cross the road and continue down Queen Street until you reach Aylward Street. Turn left onto Aylward Street and follow the signs to the entrance of the centre.

By bus

- Take bus 1, 2, 2A, 3, 20, 21 or the Solent Ranger and get off at the Curzon Howe Road stop.
- Walk down Queen Street until you reach Aylward Street. Turn onto Aylward Street and follow the signs to the entrance of the centre.

By car

- Take the M275 and follow the brown signs for 'Historic Waterfront'. Queen Street is the main road that leads down to the Historic Dockyard.

Parking

Trinity College London has no parking facilities. However, nearby car park facilities are:

- Admiral Quarter - hourly charges apply.
- Pall Europe - hourly charges apply.
- Havant Street - Pay & Display that operates 7-days a week, 7am-7pm.
- Gunwharf Quays - open 24 hours. Hourly charges apply.

