The Newcastle Deaf Centre
2 Summerhill Grove
Newcastle upon Tyne
Tyne and Wear NE4 6EE

The Newcastle Deaf centre is situated in a residential street bordering Summerhill Park.

Enter the building and head to the ground floor, where a Trinity College London employee will meet you and direct you to the exam centre on the second floor.

Accessibility
Step-free access and lifts inside to enable easy access to the centre on the second floor.

Getting there

By train
- Exit Newcastle train station to the left towards the Life Centre and follow Westmorland Road towards Newcastle College. Continue on Westmorland Road and take a right at the mini roundabout on Rye Hill (just before St Paul's Primary School). Continue on Rye Hill then turn right onto Houston Street to the crossroads and take a right onto the Summerhill Grove. The Newcastle Deaf Centre is located at number 2 on the right-hand side of the road and is signposted as the Newcastle Deaf Centre.

By bus
- Take bus 30 or 31 and alight at either the Newcastle College or Westmorland Street stops. Walk towards Rye Hill Street and follow the road along, taking the first right onto Houston Street. Walk down Houston Street until you come to a crossroad. Turn right onto Summerhill Grove. The Newcastle Deaf Centre is located at number 2 on the right-hand side of the road and is signposted as the Newcastle Deaf Centre.

By car
- From the A189 at the Westmorland junction, head uphill towards Newcastle Sixth Form College. Turn right at the mini roundabout onto Rye Hill and follow the road along and take the first right onto Houston Street. Follow Houston Street to the crossroads and take a right onto Summerhill Grove. The Newcastle Deaf Centre is located at number 2 on the right-hand side of the road and is signposted as the Newcastle Deaf Centre.

Parking
- There is on-street permit controlled parking close to the Newcastle Deaf Centre. If you drive your car to the exam centre you can come inside the building to get a parking permit which must be returned once your exam is finished.
